

Felker Building New Factory

Max N. Felker, owner of the Felker Manufacturing Company, makers of diamond saws and other precision instruments, this week began construction of a brick factory and office building at 1128 Border ave. He will move his present plant on Emerald st. to the new, modern structure when the latter, is completed in September. The new building will be 45 by 60 feet in size and will cost approximately $8,000 to build, according to records at the city engineer's office.

Other new construction started here during the week was by William Youlster, repairs to the cannery building at 1916 Border ave., $600, and Joe C. Bay, reconstruction of a garage at 2003 Gramercy ave., $150.

Only One Man in Next Draft Quota

(Continued from Page 1-A) order number by which his local board will consider his classification and "no local board can classify the individual registrant until his number is reached, except in case of volunteers."

The national lottery, he pointed out, served as a guide for every local board to integrate its new registrants among those who registered October 16, 1940.

Knights of Columbus Install New Officers at Redondo Council

Alondra Village Tract Open for Inspection Now

Alondra Village, located at 156th st., and Crenshaw blvd., only five miles from Torrance, where hundreds of attractive homes are now being built under F.H.A. regulations is now open for public inspection. The developers of the tract where all improvements are in and paid for, Bab Hothe Construction Company announces unusual low terms for their modern homes.

Walter J. Lumbaleu is sales manager at the Alondra Village office which is open evenings until 9 o'clock. One of the tract's bargain attractions are five-room homes, complete ready to move into, for as low as $3,350 with $23 monthly payments.

The developers will also build contract homes on lots in Alondra Village from plans submitted by the potential owners or from the many unusual designs they have on file. Located in the heart of the aviation industry, Alondra Village has attracted hundreds of visitors recently and is being rapidly settled with a high type of families.

Eleven Patients Enter Hospital

Eleven patients entered Torrance Memorial hospital during the past week. They were: Harold B.H. 1514 Marchina ave., last Thursday for an appendectomy; William Dietz, Hermosa Beach, Tuesday for medical care; Harold Little, Redondo Beach, Sunday for surgery; Mrs. Kathryn Monroe, 1229 225th st., Tuesday for surgery; and Mrs. Lois Reynolds, Redondo Beach, Tuesday for surgery.

John Shelby, 1335 El Prado, Monday for medical care following an accident; Raymond Sew Long Beach, Tuesday for medical care; Edna Sandstrom, 8-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sandstrom of 2345 216th st., Lomita, Wednesday for a tonsillectomy; Barbara Vatcher, 41 of Temple City, Sunday for surgery; Mrs. Esther Walker, Redondo Beach, last Wednesday for medical care; and Gregory Wallace, 10, Redondo Beach, Saturday for an emergency appendectomy.

Financial Secretary Fred Lippert, Recorder Ray Brown, Warden Frank Bauer, Lecturer Joe Hodson, Treasurer James McLaughlin, Advocate George Andre, Trustee Andrew Colmer, Inner Guard Edward McGee, Outer Guard John Melnyre. Assisting in the installation ceremonies was District Warden Frank J. Hindinger, of Manchester Heights. Brother Knights from Manchester Heights, San Pedro and Compton attended the ceremonies. Thomas Reagan, widely known state chairman of Boyology committee, attended with the group from Compton. Refreshments were served after the ceremonies.

Redondo Beach Council is comprised of members from Torrance, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Lomita and El Segundo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crook enjoyed a fishing trip at Railroad canyon near Elsinore last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever and daughter Joyce and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess enjoyed a vacation at the Bevers' Crest-line cabin last week.
